

My Base-12 Numerology Road Map

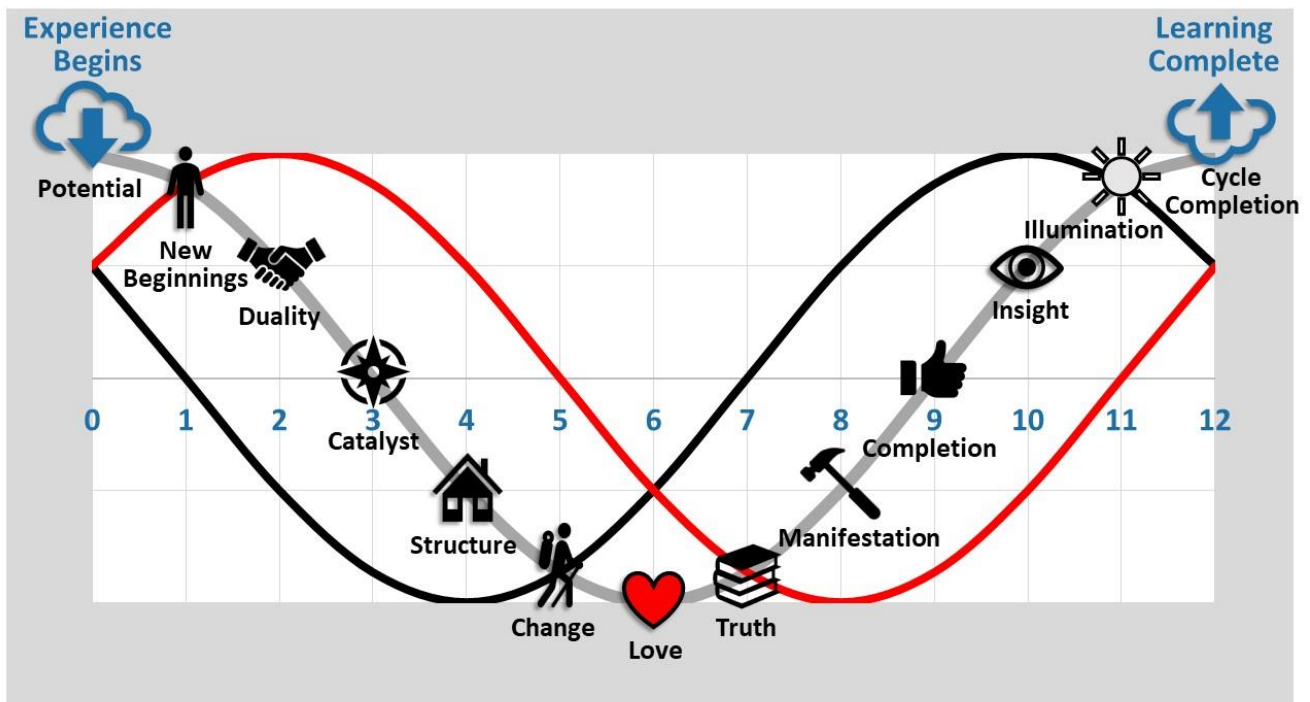

Birth Name: Michael Peter Smith
first middle last

Current Name: Michael Smith
first last

Birth Date: January 26 1963
month day year

Numerology is based upon the principle that everything is energy and has a vibrational character, including numbers, letters and words. My birth date and birth name are the personal vibrational signature I chose for this life. My birth date reveals what I am here to learn and the various cycles I will experience along the way (Forecasting numbers), while my birth name says who I am and how I express myself (Personality numbers). Together, they are the compass heading of my life. The specific choices I make and route I take are up to me, but my vibrational signature will always help keep me on course.

The vibrational “Road Map” I have chosen for this journey is revealed in my base-12 numerology, where every experience, relationship or incarnation follows a universal cycle of twelve vibrational themes from the 0 of “Potential” to the 11 of “Illumination”. How fully I explore each experience determines how fully I may learn the lessons contained within.

Forecasting Numbers from My Birth Date: “My Path”

My Life Path (based on my birth date) is the overall theme and major lessons I have chosen to explore and involves learning about 28/10. This Life Path indicates I will learn about the theme of Awareness (10) through the Duality (2) of Manifestation and Abundance (8).

I will experience this theme over three Growth Cycles, each with its own timing and focus:

1. My first growth cycle (based on my birth month) will last roughly from birth to age 26 with a focus on the 1 theme of New Beginnings (1).
2. My second growth cycle (birth day) will last about 27 years, from age 26 to 53 and will focus on the 22 master number theme of Mastery of Duality (22). Also called my Birth Day number, this is a special talent I possess to help me navigate my Life Path.
3. My third growth cycle (birth year) will last from about age 53 to the rest of my life, with a focus on the 14/5 theme of Change (5) through New Beginnings (1) of Structure and Stability (4).

There are two other types of cycles generated from my birth date; four Pinnacle Cycles that bring periods of opportunity and four Challenge Cycles that present challenges to overcome in pursuing those opportunities:

1. My first pinnacle cycle (birth month + day) will occur from birth to age 26, bringing opportunities involving the 5 theme of Change (5). But to take advantage of this, I need to overcome my first challenge cycle theme (birth month - day) of 3 involving challenges of Catalysts (3).
2. My second pinnacle cycle (birth day + year) will last 9 years from age 26 to 35 and will present opportunities involving the 9 theme of Completion (9). But to take advantage of this, I need to overcome my second challenge cycle theme (birth day - year) of 1 involving challenges of New Beginnings (1).

3. My third pinnacle cycle (1st pinnacle + 2nd) will last another 9 years from age 35 to 44, with opportunities involving the 12/3 theme of Catalysts (3) through New Beginnings (1) of Duality (2). But to take advantage of this, I need to overcome my third challenge cycle theme (1st challenge - 2nd) of 2 involving challenges of Duality (2).
4. My fourth pinnacle cycle (birth month + year) will last from age 44 through the rest of my life, with opportunities involving the 6 theme of Love and Harmony (6). But to take advantage of this, I will need to overcome my fourth challenge cycle theme (birth month - year) of 4 which involves challenges of Structure and Stability (4).

My Maturity number is the sum of my Life Path and Expression number and indicates the main direction for the second half of my life (after 35). As my Maturity number is 16/7, I will focus on Spiritual Truth and Knowledge (7) through New Beginnings (1) of Love and Harmony (6).

Each year also has its own energetic theme that influences our own personal vibe during the full twelve months. The World Year affects everyone with the same overall theme, while our Personal Year (year of interest + birth month + birth day) is how we personally feel that year's effect. Following are those numbers for last year, this year and next year:

- Last year 2018 was a 5 World Year of Change (5). For me, it was a 10 Personal Year of Awareness (10).
- This year 2019 is a 6 World Year of Love and Harmony (6). For me, it is an 11 Personal Year of Illumination (11).
- Next year 2020 will be a 7 World Year of Spiritual Truth and Knowledge (7). For me, it will be a 10/1 Personal Year of New Beginnings (1) through New Beginnings (1) of Potential (0).

Personality Numbers from My Birth Name: “Who I Am”

My birth name reveals that my Expression number is 17/8. This means that I can best express my true self and potential in areas involving Manifestation and Abundance (8) through New Beginnings (1) of Spiritual Truth and Knowledge (7).

The vowels of my birth name reveal my Soul Number, my Soul’s inner yearning. As my Soul number is 10/1, my inner yearning is for New Beginnings (1) through New Beginnings (1) of Potential (0).

Likewise, the consonants in my birth name give my Personality Number, my outer personality of how I am perceived by others. The energy I project is the 16/7 vibration of Spiritual Truth and Knowledge (7) through New Beginnings (1) of Love & Harmony (6).

The difference between my Soul and Personality numbers is my Bridge number. This indicates how I can adjust my outer behavior (Personality) to better align with how I see myself (Soul), how to be perceived as authentic. My Bridge number is 6, so embodying the positive qualities of this number of love, harmony and compassion reveals my Soul’s true nature.

How I react in difficult situations is my Balance number and is given by the first initials of my birth name. My Balance number is 10/1, so under pressure I tend to isolate myself from the situation and impatiently take matters into my own hands.

The number of times each letter-number energy from 1 to 9 appears in my birth name indicates my relative strengths and weaknesses at this point in my Soul's development. Those appearing three or more times are considered my Hidden Passions, my strengths. For me, these include Change (5) and Completion (9). As such, I have the positive qualities of the 5 vibration of adaptability, courage and trust and the positive qualities of the 6 vibration of kindness, caring and compassion.

Any letter-number missing from my birth name is a Karmic Lesson and highlights a specific weakness or unresolved lesson carried over from my prior lives. By choosing a birth name missing the letter vibration of my Karmic Lesson(s), I will feel its absence and the need to work at it as a priority for this life. My Karmic Lesson(s) are 6 which involves learning to be more loving, accepting and compassionate to myself and others.

The last of the numbers in my Base-12 Numerology Road Map is my Current Name number. Although my full birth name (Expression number) reflects who I truly am, the current name I use can adjust that vibration and the energy it projects. My Current name of Michael Smith projects the 11 master number vibration of Mastery of Self (11).
